

Lesson 2.2 Acquiring Knowledge

Write What Should Children Learn? in the middle circle of the chart. Write major skills or types of information children should learn in the surrounding boxes. Consider how stress and environment might affect a child's ability to learn. Write or illustrate these factors around each box.

