direct. To give instruction or guidance.

etiquette. The art of using good manners in any situation.

impromptu speaking. A situation in which you did not have advance notice to prepare your speech or presentation.

persuade. To convince a person to take the course of action you propose.

telephone etiquette. Using good manners on the telephone.