

Exploring Life and Career © 2012

Chapter 10: Buying and Caring for Clothes—Read, Discuss, and Analyze Activity

Wardrobe Inventory

READ the case study

Zach claims he does not have anything to wear, yet his closet is full of clothes. He has outgrown some of the garments, while others need repair. He has grown tired of other garments and says that some are out of style. Zach does not know where to begin as he stares at his full closet wondering what to wear. His clothing budget is limited.

DISCUSS this question in class:

How would completing a wardrobe inventory help Zach?

ANALYZE the following statements about the case study to decide which are true and which are false.

T      F      Zach could sell the clothes he will no longer wear at a consignment store and use the money he receives to buy new ones.

T      F      Zach should repair the clothes that need it so that he can wear them.

T      F      Zach should throw out everything in his closet and buy new clothes.

T      F      Zach should keep what is in his closet and buy new clothes.