

Preparing for Life and Career © 2013

Chapter 1: Personal Development

Copyright Goodheart-Willcox Co., Inc.

Across

1. A member of the community.
6. People who have positive attitudes.
7. Feelings and opinions about someone or something.
10. Changes that occur as your body grows and matures.
14. People who help guide the behaviors of others in the community by creating and enforcing rules designed to help and protect you and all other citizens in the community.
15. A pattern of expected behavior.
16. Everything and everyone around you, including family, home, friends, school, classmates, teachers, coaches, and community.
17. Feelings about people and events in your life.
18. Sections of the DNA molecule found in a person's cells that determine the characteristics that will appear as a person grows and develops.

Down

2. Qualities that make you different from everyone else.
3. Changes that occur as you meet more people and learn how to get along with them.
4. Your status as a citizen with rights and responsibilities.
5. Combination of traits that makes you the person you are, including habits and feelings.
8. The order of birth that indicates whether you are the first, middle, or youngest child in your family.
9. People who have negative attitudes.
11. Chemicals produced in the body that influence the way you grow and develop.
12. The passing of traits from one generation of family to the next.
13. The time when the body begins to mature sexually.