

Preparing for Life and Career © 2013

Chapter 21: At the Table

Copyright Goodheart-Willcox Co., Inc.

Across

- 3. Food that is prepared at a restaurant, but is brought home to eat.
- 6. Filling plates in the kitchen and then serving them to each seated guest.
- 10. Food service where people choose their foods along a counter and carry it to a table for eating.
- 11. A phrase written on an invitation that means the host only wants to hear from those who cannot attend.
- 12. Passing serving dishes around the table for diners to fill their own plates.
- 13. All types of drinking glasses.

Down

- 1. The table space in front of a person's seat. Also called a place setting.
- 2. Serving dishes set on a separate table allowing people to help themselves.
- 4. A French abbreviation, répondez, s'il vous plaît, that means please respond.
- 5. Plates, cups, saucers, and bowls.
- 7. Extra money paid for the service you receive that shows your gratitude.
- 8. Forks, knives, and spoons.
- 9. The table's place mats, napkins, and tablecloths.