Name	Date
Adventures in Food and Nutrition! © 2012 Chapter 7: The Cook's Tools—History Activity
Julia Child's Kitchen
Julia Child was a famous American chef. She wrote cookbool on television. She studied at the famous Le Cordon Bleu coo to the United States, she published a cookbook titled Master television show, called The French Chef , started in 1962.	king school in Paris. When she returned
Mrs. Child collected kitchen tools. She had hundreds of them! To learn more about this important historical figure and her tools, visit the following website. Click on View Selected Objects to answer the questions below.
http://americanhistory.si.edu/juliachild/
Activity Questions
1. What is a "buffalo iron"? Why did Mrs. Child use it?
2. What is a manche à gigot? Would this tool be useful in yo	ur kitchen? Why or why not?
3. What is a mezzaluna? How is it used?

Name	Date
4. Why did Mrs. Child have a blowtorch in her kitch Mrs. Child's have used?	then? Instead of using a blowtorch, what else could
5. What happened after Mrs. Child used a whisk o	n her television program?
6. What have you seen on television that you war	ited to buy? Why did you want to buy it?