

Adventures in Food and Nutrition! © 2012
Chapter 25: A Career to Consider—Glossary career. The work in a certain field that a person does for a long period of time.

career ladder. A series of jobs in the same field to which a person can advance.

customer service. Career area that involves working with customers.

food preparation. A career area that involves preparing food to be sold.

goals. Aims you want to achieve.

interview. A planned meeting between a job applicant and an employer.

management. A career area that involves working with both customers and employees.

references. People an employer can call to ask about your abilities as a worker.

sanitation. A career area that involves keeping a restaurant and its supplies clean.

values. Beliefs and ideas that are important to you.