

An Introduction to Human Services

As you read this chapter, use the tree diagram below to organize information about the field of human services. Write An Introduction to Human Services in the top circle and then record major categories and specific activities and notes in the circles below.

